

Thursdays at the Durham Community Center

Durham School, 4099 RT 145, Durham, NY

1.5 Miles west of the Milk Run

6 p.m. to walk; 7- 8:30 for most programs

Schedule for May:

May 4: Schoharie Street Movies. The first open air movies in the United States were shown in Schoharie in 1917. Thousands attended. Dwight Grimm, who along with his wife, Leigh Van Swall, operates the Greenville Drive In now will share the history of these Free Street Movies.

May 11: Local History Group. We will continue the discussion of techniques for interviewing longtime residents and do some practice interviews. Also bring your pictures to share and questions you want answered.

May 18: 6 p.m. Homesteading. This group will discuss gardening and poultry topics. Bring your questions and some plants or seeds to share (if you have any). 7 p.m. Sewing, Knitting, Quilting, Crochet Group. We are going to try to crochet this month. We could use some instruction from someone who knows how to crochet. Also bring projects you are working on to share with others.

May 25: Book Club. We will read the historical novel Al Capone Does My Shirts by Gennifer Choldenko. Billed as a young people's book, it touches a number of relevant topics and is a quick read. Did you know that Alcatraz is a National Historic Site and its gardens are part of the Garden Conservancy tours.

All programs are free and open to the public. Call 518-722-8073 if you have questions.
