1.5 Miles west of the Milk Run

6 p.m. to walk; 7- 8:30 for most programs

Schedule for February:

February 1: Program 7 p.m. in cafeteria: Jayme Kuhn will give a presentation on Dunix, his property on Cornwallville Road which has just been approved for listing on the State and National Historic Registers. Dunix was developed by the Matthews family, millionaires from Brooklyn who made their fortune manufacturing soda water.

February 8: Homesteading 7 p.m. Signore Chester Gallo, newly published author, farm diplomat and tour guide at Cluckin' A Critter Farm, will do a book signing for his newly published Rooster Tails. If we have time Chris Nahas will show slides of the design of early Icelandic turf houses. This promises to be an entertaining evening.

February 15: Craft Group 7 p.m. Leontina Lange, Syracuse graduate with a major in Fashion, who interned with Willie Smith, worked for Betsy Johnson in the Pattern Room, and was the Technical Design Manager at J Crew, will help us develop more creative sewing skills. Bring your sewing machine and current projects and your questions and she will get you to the next level. Or just come and listen.

February 22: Book Club 7 p.m. The Book Thief by Markus Zusak is the February selection. Made into a film in 2013, the book is about a young girl living with her adoptive German family during the Nazi era. Taught to read by her kind-hearted foster father, the girl begins "borrowing" books and sharing them with the Jewish refugees being sheltered by her foster parents in their home.

All programs are free and open to the public. Call 518-722-8073 if you have questions.
