

July Thursdays at the Durham Community Center

Durham School, 4099 Rt 145, Durham, NY

1.5 Miles west of the Milk Run

7- 8:30 for most programs

July 5: 7 p.m. in the cafeteria: Fire Safety. Do you have a plan to keep your family safe in case a fire breaks out in your home? Have planned an escape route if people are asleep upstairs? What kind of smoke detectors should you have, how many, where should they be positioned, how often should they be replaced? What should elderly people living alone do to be safe?. These are a few of the questions we all need answers to, weekenders as well as permanent residents. Program will be presented by the Oak Hill-Durham Fire Company.

July 12: Homesteading 7 p.m. Field Trip to the property of a Homesteader in Cornwallville. Meet at the school promptly at 7 or shortly before to caravan over. Wear sturdy walking shoes.

July 19: Craft Group 7 p.m. No meeting this month. Many folks are on vacation or attending Grey Fox. Craft presentation planned for August.

July 26: Book Club 7 p.m. For July Origin by Dan Brown. Mystery thriller about a discovery that “will change the face of science forever.” Book for August is The Stranger in the Woods: The Extraordinary Story of the Last True Hermit by Michael Finkel.

All programs are free and open to the public. Call 518-722-8073 if you have questions.
